Section 11.

CONFIDENTIALITY: If you are the victim of a sexual battery, aggravated child abuse, aggravated stalking, harassment, aggravated battery, or domestic violence, you have the right to have information about your home address and telephone number, employment address and telephone number, and your personal assets, kept confidential for a period of five years. If you are the victim of any of these crimes, please mark one of the following statements. Your response will not affect the processing of your claim.

☐ I want the information to be confidential. ☐ I do not want the information to be confidential.

SERIOUS FINANCIAL HARDSHIP: I certify that I have a serious financial hardship because of crime-related expenses that cannot be paid by any other source.

PROPERTY LOSS CERTIFICATION: I certify that the property in question belonged to the victim; that this loss adversely affects the victim's quality of life; that there is no other source of reimbursement for this loss; and that replacement of the property would cause the claimant a serious financial hardship.

RELEASE OF INFORMATION: I give permission to any hospital, doctor, dentist, mental health counselor, or other treatment provider, banking institution, social service agency, law enforcement agency, corrections agency, state attorney's office, insurance carrier, attorney or employer to give out information that is requested concerning any treatment rendered, employment, insurance, third-party payer, or law enforcement investigative information to the Department of Legal Affairs for use in processing my claim. I give permission to the Department to release information about the status of my claim to any treatment provider, law enforcement agency, or state attorney's office.

REPAYMENT REQUIREMENT: I understand that payment by the victim compensation program is a payment of last resort and that I must repay the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund if I receive a victim compensation award and also receive payment as a result of the same criminal incident from another source. Other sources include, but are not limited to, any payment from the offender, an insurance policy, a settlement, a judgment or an award in a third party lawsuit. I further understand that I must repay any emergency award from the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund, if my claim is determined ineligible. I also understand that if my eligibility is withdrawn, I must repay any amount received from the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund.

The information I have provided is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
